

CALL FOR PAPERS

Society of Camp Directors

2010 SCD WRITING AWARDS

For Excellence in Writing on Organized Children's Camping in Canada

AWARDS

The purpose of the SCD Writing Awards is to encourage research and writing that enhances professional practices and qualified directorship in Canadian camps.

The Society presents an Award of $1,000.00 annually at its November meeting, and may present additional Awards of $500.00 each.

The Awards are funded by the Society of Camp Directors, the Ontario Camps Association and the Trent University Archives. Entries are evaluated by an academic and professional panel appointed by the SCD Board. All entries will become valued references in the Canadian Camping Collection at the Trent Archives.

REQUIREMENTS

The topic may examine any aspect, past, present or future of camp operation, or it may be relevant to organized children's camping through the perspective of any other field or discipline.

It may be a term paper, thesis, research report, article, chapter or book.

The writing must be original work, typed or word-processed, and at least 5000 words, plus optional charts, diagrams and illustrations, with standard citations and references.
